Bibliography Workshop

A bibliography is a list of the works you consulted during your research. A bibliography gives credit to the source of an idea.

If you are crediting a book:
You need:
- Author’s Name: Last name, initial(s). Horn, R.R.
- Copyright date: (2007).
- Title of book underlined: Animals of the Forest.
- Place book published: Danbury, CT:
- Name of Publisher: Grolier

Example: note punctuation!

If you are crediting the internet:
You need:
- Author’s Name: Last name, initial(s). Square, I.M.
- Title of book underlined: Owls.
- On line notation: [On line].
- Where you found it: Available: http://www.birdbrains.org
- Date accessed

Example: note punctuation!